

An illustration of two children, a boy and a girl, walking and holding hands. The boy on the left has spiky brown hair, freckles, and is wearing a blue t-shirt and blue shorts with a green backpack. The girl on the right has blonde pigtails with red bows, freckles, and is wearing an orange dress with a pink backpack. She is also holding a large red pencil. They are surrounded by small colorful dots (red, yellow, green, blue). The background is a blue torn-paper style shape on a white background with orange and yellow torn-paper borders at the top and bottom.
